Wednesday, 4th November, 2015

Grand Opening of the Library and Bush Tucker Garden and Book Week Parade

Parents and Caregivers,

Unfortunately the weather is not on our side and the forecast is for rain, wind and thunderstorms for tomorrow. We have decided to postpone our planned Grand Opening and Book Parade until Tuesday, 17th November.

Things you need to consider…

- Special lunch orders will be transferred to this date. If this is no longer a viable option for your child and the adults attending, please fill out the slip below and your lunch order and money will be returned to you.
- If you have made a special lunch order for your child tomorrow, they will not be receiving this as it will be transferred to Tuesday, 17th November. You will need to write a new lunch order for Thursday, 5th November or send along lunch as normal.

We hope to see both parents and children all on Tuesday, 17th November at 9:10am dressed up as your favourite book character for the Book Parade and we hope you can stay for the Grand Opening of the Library and Bush Tucker Garden and picnic lunch!

-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Special Order Lunch Cancellation

Please return to the canteen by Monday, 9th November.

Name: ____________________________________________ Class: _______________

Name: ____________________________________________ Class: _______________

Name: ____________________________________________ Class: _______________

Adult Name: _______________________________________

Adult Name: _______________________________________